Atlee Ogle's Subdivision
Restrictions Indenture

Whereas a real estate subdivision plat known as Atlee Ogle's Subdivision, being a subdivision of part of Lot 10, being a part of the Southeast Quarter (1/4) of Section 12, in Township
One (1) North Range Nine (9) West of the Third Principal Meridian, St. Clair County, Illinois, which said plat and the premises shown thereon are, and shall hereafter be, made a part hereof;

and,

Whereas the makers of this indenture, Atlee F. Ogle and Virginia H. Ogle, of the City of Belleville, Illinois, have taken title to the premises comprising the subdivision known as Atlee Ogle's Subdivision, with the right to convey the said premises, or any part or parts thereof;

and,

Whereas the said owners desire to impose on the said premises certain assessments, conditions, restrictions, reservations and limitations;

Now Therefore, in consideration of mutual advantages to accrue to the owners of the premises comprising the said subdivision at the time of its recording in the Recorder's Office of St. Clair County, Illinois, as well as to the future owners of said premises, there is hereby imposed on the said subdivision certain assessments, conditions, restrictions, reservations and limitations, which are hereby made a part of the plat of said Atlee Ogle's Subdivision, to-wit:

(1) Building Cost, Quality And Size.

No residence shall be permitted on any lot at a cost less than $12,000 based on the cost levels prevailing on the date these covenants are recorded, it being understood that the intention and purpose of this covenant is to assure that all dwellings shall be of a quality of workmanship and materials substantially the same or better than that which can be produced on the date these covenants are recorded. The ground floor area of the main structure, exclusive of one-story open porches and garages, shall be not less than 900 square feet. The builder must submit plans of the building to be constructed on the premises, showing the design and specifying the type of materials to be used in the exterior construction. These plans must be approved by the seller before the building is started. The exterior of the building must be completed within one year from the start of construction. Consideration will be given to any emergency (such as death) or other equally unavoidable conditions that may cause violation of the above clause.

(2) Residential Area Covenants, Land Use And Building Type

No trailer, basement, tent, shack, garage, barn or other out-building shall under any circumstances be used either temporarily or permanently for residence purposes nor shall same be used either temporarily or permanently as a dwelling. No lot shall be used except for residential purposes. Not more than one house shall be built, placed or constructed on a lot and shall be not more than one story in height. No flat roof type house, concrete block house, or house with asbestos or brick siding shall be permitted on any lot.

(3) Building Lines.

No building or structure, nor any part thereof, may be built, placed or constructed in the space between any building line shown on the said plat and the street which is adjacent to the front or side line of any lot. No building or structure, nor any part thereof (except fences) may be built, placed or constructed closer than ten (10) feet to any line defining the limits of ownership of the adjacent property.

(4) Building Location.

No building shall be located on any lot closer to the front lot line or closer to the side street line than the minimum building setback lines shown on the recorded plat. In any event, no building shall be located on any lot closer than 30 feet to the front lot line, or closer than 15 feet to any side street line. In case of one person owning two or more adjacent lots no restrictions shall be imposed on the interior lot line, however in no case will any house be permitted closer than 20 feet to any other house. No dwelling shall be located closer than 20 feet to the rear lot line. For the purpose of this covenant, eaves, steps and open porches shall not be considered as a part of a building, provided, however, that this shall not be construed to permit any portion of a building on a lot to encroach upon another lot.

(5) Easements.

All easements as shown on this plat, shall be, and the same are hereby set aside and reserved for public utilities service and municipal improvements. No building or structure or any part thereof may be built, placed or constructed on or within or over any easement as shown on this plot, or which may hereafter be established. It is expressly declared and provided however, that the said owners of the lands comprising this subdivision at the time of its recording, reserve and retain themselves, and so long as they remain the owners of one or more of the lots, the right and privilege to eliminate any one or more of the easements, or any part or parts thereof, but there shall be provided, at that time, for each lot so affected thereby or any buildings or structures that may then or later be erected or placed thereon, subdivision essentials and facilities similar to and as adequate as those eliminated, and there shall also be such additional easement or easements established to take the place of those eliminated, if any be necessary.

(6) Nuisance

No noxious or offensive trade or activity shall be carried on upon any lot, shall anything be done thereon which may be or become an annoyance or a nuisance to the neighborhood. All coal underlying the lot and streets of this subdivision are reserved.

(7) Signs

No sign of any kind shall be displayed to the public eye on any lot except one professional sign of not more than one square foot, one sign of not more than sixteen (16) square feet advertising the property for sale or rent, or signs used by a builder to advertise the property during the construction and sales period.

(8) Livestock And Poultry

No game, livestock, or poultry of any kind shall be raised, bred or kept on any lot, except that dogs, cats, or other household pets may be kept, provided that they are not kept, bred, or maintained for any commercial purposes.

(9) Garbage, Refuse And Sewerage Disposal

No lot shall be used or maintained as a dumping grounds for rubbish, trash, garbage, or other waste shall not be kept except in sanitary containers. All incinerators or other equipment for the storage of such material shall be kept clean and in sanitary condition. No sewerage disposal shall be allowed to drain that will reach the surface of the earth.

In witness whereof, the owners have caused this indenture to be duly executed and have hereunto set their hands and seals this 3rd day of June, A.D. 1953.
